

Ovid Township Residents

A virtual workshop meeting has been scheduled for the Ovid Township Planning Commission on December 1, 2020 @ 6PM.

The purpose of this meeting is to discuss the Township master plan and the zoning ordinance for possible revisions and/or amendments. The meeting will be held virtually per Public Act 228 of 2020 due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic.

All voting members of the Planning Commission will be participating electronically.

The general public may participate in the meeting electronically by using the Zoom link or dial-in phone number below, which will allow for two-way communication during public comment periods and allow for the general public to view and hear all comments of the voting members of the Planning Commission. Ovid Township is inviting you to a scheduled Zoom meeting.
